

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 2214

Introduced by Assembly Member Tran

February 22, 2006

An act relating to food labeling and safety.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL’S DIGEST

AB 2214, as introduced, Tran. Food labeling and safety.

Existing law, the California Uniform Retail Food Facilities Law, establishes uniform health and sanitation standards for retail food facilities as defined. The law requires the State Department of Health Services to adopt regulations to implement and administer those provisions, and to delegate primary enforcement duties to local health agencies.

Existing law authorizes the sale of Korean rice cakes that have been at room temperature for no more than 24 hours.

This bill would declare the intent of the Legislature to enact legislation that would allow food establishments to sell banh chung, a traditional Vietnamese food, at room temperature for no more than 24 hours.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature to enact
- 2 legislation that would allow food establishments to sell banh

- 1 chung, a traditional Vietnamese food, at room temperature for no
- 2 more than 24 hours.
